

K-Love radio station is the only radio station that my husband and I listen to. This station helps our local community by broadcasting information about concerts and events in our area. They also give local weather. This is the only contemporary Christian station in our area. They provide positive and wholesome music for all ages, which is a blessing to our area.